"To whom we pay Tribute"

We, the Senior Class of 1960, gladly dedicate our yearbook, THE EAST WIND, to our English teacher. Wherever you see her, she has a smile and a kind word for everyone. She is known for her patience and for her eagerness to help.

With deep appreciation for all she has done to help us, we dedicate with love, our 1960 EAST WIND to MRS. JERRY DAY.

Senior Class History

As time marches on, we the Senior Class of 1960, would like to stop and pay tribute to the recalled days at East High. We entered high school only four years ago and we shall remember it as a great day in our lives. It was hard for us to learn where our classes were located. The school seemed very strange compared to the small schools to which we were accustomed. During our freshman year we chose as our leaders: Nancy Bauguess, president; Jerry Pardue, vice president; Edwin Tharpe, secretary and treasurer. Our homeroom teachers were Mrs. Shaw, Mr. Walsh, Mr. Bunker and Mrs. Vickery. During our freshman year we enjoyed a class party at Memorial Park in Elkin. We were very pleased to have one of our freshman girls chosen as a cheerleader.

It wasn't hard for us, as sophomores, to get down to work when we entered school the next fall. Later in the year we elected our class officers: Jerry Pardue was elected president of our class; Joseph Roselle, vice president; Jerry Burchette, secretary; and Billie Ann Gibson, treasurer. Mrs. Day, Mr. Whittington and Miss Foster were our homeroom teachers. During the year our class enjoyed a trip to Grandfather Mountain and Linville Caverns. By this time the school cafeteria had been completed so we were able to enjoy a class party in it.

Ninety students were enrolled in our junior year with Mr. Whittington, Mrs. Pearson and Mr. Younger as our class sponsors. We elected as our class officers: Edwin Tharpe, president; Perry Burchette, vice president; Ruth Trivette, secretary; and Billie Ann Gibson, treasurer. We all enjoyed selling magazines and planning for our banquet in the spring. On April 24, 1959, we entertained the Senior Class, the high school faculty and school board with our Junior-Senior Banquet in our school cafeteria. "South of the Border," was our theme. Jerry Pardue was master of ceremonies. Early in the spring we happily selected our rings which we would receive the following year. Also this year we enjoyed a class party at Memorial Park In Elkin.

In the fall of '59 eighty-eight seniors returned to school. We could hardly believe we were beginning our last year at East High. We had the planning of graduation and, most important, the publishing of our own EAST WIND. Carol Swaim was elected Editor and Mrs. Shaw was our sponsor. For our class officers we elected: Perry Burchette as president; Christine Spicer, vice president; Ruth Trivette, secretary; and Edgar Spicer, treasurer. Two of our class members attended the National F.H.A. Convention in Chicago. The highlight for the Senior year was our trip to the State Fair at Raleigh.

As our twelve years of school comes to an end, we, the Senior Class of 1960, are proud to be Seniors of East High School. We shall always cherish these days and hold these memories dear to our hearts as we go to greater and bigger things in life.
